

[read more 1] The gift of faith is given by God, and we are called to nurture that gift and help it to grow. Generations of Faith recognizes that this task is never finished, but is a life-long process. By gathering parishioners of all ages we can share our experiences, encourage each other, and give conscious attention to the current state of our faith in God and our relationship to the Church. We can learn from the experience of our elders, but we can also marvel at the wisdom of our youth. Old men and women dream dreams while young people see visions (Joel 2:28) and together we can envision the Kingdom of God and our call to be part of that Kingdom.
